

WILSON TO DEMAND ADHERENCE TO RULES OF WAR

CABINET APPROVES DRAFT OF
NOTE TO BE SENT TO GERMANYVOICES INTENSE FEELING OF UNITED STATES OVER HAPPENINGS

President Will Act Promptly—It is Learned Government Will Insist on Explanation of Series of Incidents Which Have Occurred Since Proclamation of War Zone Around British Isles.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—President Wilson had practically decided tonight on the first step in the policy which the United States government will pursue as a result of the sinking of the British liner Lusitania with the loss of more than a hundred American lives. The president will act promptly—within another day or two. A draft of a communication to be sent to Germany was submitted to the cabinet today and approved unanimously. While no official announcement was made it was learned that the United States would present and insist upon an explanation of the series of incidents which have occurred since the proclamation of war zone around the British Isles—the sinking of the Lusitania causing the death of Leon C. Thresher, an American citizen, the attack by German air men on the American steamer Cushing, the torpedoing of the American steamer Gulfight and finally the destruction without warning of the Lusitania with a toll of more than a thousand lives.

Voices Intense Feeling of U. S.
In what are described by those familiar with the document as firm and unmistakable terms, the president voices the intense feeling of the United States over these happenings and in the name of international law demands an adherence by Germany to the established rules of maritime warfare. The note asks that some assurance or guarantee be given hereafter that unarmed merchant vessels carrying non-combatants be visited and searched when encountered on the high seas by the German navy and passengers and crew transferred to a place of safety before any prize is destroyed. The president points out, it is understood, that the United States in its note which said Germany would be held to "strict accountability" for any attacks on American vessels or lives had not admitted any right on the part of Germany to carry on such methods of warfare and declares moreover that the giving of official notice of an intention to commit an unjustifiable act did not justify the act or make it lawful.

Is Determined to Act Firmly.
What will follow in event of refusal by Germany to comply with the wishes of the note about to be sent no one of the president's official family would predict. They said the president was determined to act firmly and deal with each situation as it arose. It was pointed out, too, that in his speech in Philadelphia, in reference to peace Mr. Wilson was expressing merely an ideal that he wished America could and would follow.

Persons familiar with the president's point of view indicated, however, that he was by no means unprepared for or unaware of the possible eventualities of the present crisis and knew that circumstances and events over which the United States might have no control might make vigorous action necessary.

The circular from the German government to neutral countries assuming responsibility and promising reparation for any damage in the war zone to neutral vessels will not affect the determined course of the president. It was considered by the cabinet today but high officials later pointed out that there is no guarantee in it that the lives of Americans will be safeguarded as submarines cannot accommodate passengers or crew of the vessels they attack.

Secludes Self in Study.
The president took a motor ride after the cabinet meeting and later reviewed the Washington high school cadet corps. Tonight he secluded himself again in his study, perusing, it was believed editorial opinion and messages. The belief grew in many quarters that he would communicate directly with Emperor William when he came to a decision. During the present war he has on a previous occasion written personally to Emperor Nicholas of Russia on behalf of Austrian prisoners and to adopt this form of communication, it was suggested, would make it possible for the president to devote his message to the general cause of humanity rather than any specific case which the regular form of diplomatic correspondence might necessitate. The fact that Mr. Wilson today said he was not referring in his speech in Philadelphia last night especially to the Lusitania tragedy, was taken in many quarters to mean that he had in mind the broader idea of humanity. His references to the example which the United States should set other nations by remaining at peace represented, he intimated today, his personal attitude and not necessarily a fixed policy.

In today's wide range of speculation over the president's speech, from which his Philadelphia audience drew the inference that he was thinking of the Lusitania case, it was regarded as significant that some officials close to the nation's executive were satisfied that the eventualities of the present situation had not necessarily been limited by his utterances concerning peace.

Has Nothing More to Add.
Specifically the president said of the Lusitania case that he had nothing more to add to his statement of last Saturday that he was considering earnestly but calmly "the right course of action to pursue" and expected to act with deliberation as well as firmness.

Just what effect the issuance by Germany of her circular note assuming responsibility for losses sustained by neutrals as a result of mistaken attacks by submarines on vessels not engaged in hostile or neutral service would have on the course planned by the president prior to today was widely commented upon in official and diplomatic circles.

The German note was discussed briefly at the cabinet meeting, having arrived early in the day from Ambassador Gerard. While it was regarded as a promise for reparation in the cases of the Gulfight and the Cushing, it it shall be proved that they were damaged by Germans, the opinion of high officials of the Washington government was that the communication did not alter the main issue, the torpedoing without warning of unarmed merchant ships of any nationality carrying non-combatants.

Modifies Original Proclamation.
The circular modifies the original proclamation of the war zone in the sense that responsibility for mistakes is now assumed and the right of visit and search is to be exercised against vessels flying neutral flags, while destruction of neutral vessels carrying contraband is to be conducted under the rules of international law governing prizes.

Just how a submarine will be able to carry out this obligation was not explained in the circular and left officials very much in doubt on this point. The general opinion of many law officers of the government, including some of the cabinet, was that the German circular would not materially affect the president's course. It was significant, however, they believed, of a desire on the part of Germany to remain on friendly terms with all neutrals and to placate especially Holland and some of the Scandinavian countries which have suffered as a result of the mistakes of German submarines.

The arrival of Germany's official statement expressing regret over the loss of American lives on the Lusitania was another factor which was taken into consideration in official quarters as likely to have some influence on the president's policy. Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, presented the official statement on behalf of his government today, supplementing his own personal expression of yesterday. While the ambassador was at the state department, Secretary Bryan as a matter of courtesy showed him a copy of the circular issued with reference to neutral vessels, believing it might not have reached the German embassy on account of the difficulties in communication.

A canvass of officials well informed in the situation developed the fact that they were convinced that the president would follow a course which would be consistent with the dignity of the United States and leave him to adopt if necessary a more emphatic line of action as the attitude of Germany was revealed.

Disapprove of Dernberg.
It developed during the day that serious consideration had been given to the status of Dr. Dernberg, former German colonial secretary, who has been in this country for several months past as a spokesman for the German cause. The statements of Dr. Dernberg justifying the torpedoing of the Lusitania as an incident of war, taken in connection with other utterances, are understood to have met with strong disapproval in high executive quarters. This has led to some expression of precedents to see what courses are open to the government to restrict the embarrassment which many officials feel has resulted from his activity. The departure of Dr. Dernberg or the cessation of his activities, would, it was intimated, not be unwelcome to the authorities here, to say the least. The white house staff was busy today with a deluge of messages almost unprecedented in magnitude. Many were from governors of states, members of the senate, and others comprised resolutions of state legislatures. The telegrams almost unanimously expressed confidence in the president in the present crisis. They indicated that popular feeling over the disaster had by no means diminished. While most of the messages expressed the desire that something be done to show the indignation of the United States over the sinking of the Lusitania, many of them strongly opposed a recourse to war. All of the messages were delivered to the president and it was expected that he would go over as many of them as possible.

BELMONT, SHEEHAN AND STETSON
TESTIFY IN BEHALF OF BARNES

Justice Andrews Rules Evidence Given in Justification Upon the Printing Situation in Albany is Incompetent.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 11.—August Belmont, New York banker, William F. Sheehan, Democratic candidate for United States senator in 1911 and Francis Lynde Stetson, former law partner of Grover Cleveland, were the witnesses who went on the stand in the supreme court here today to testify in behalf of William Barnes, in his libel suit against Theodore Roosevelt. They were called upon to give testimony after Justice William S. Andrews, had ruled that the evidence given in justification upon the printing situation in Albany was incompetent and that the jury would be instructed to disregard it. Mr. Stetson said that he had called upon Mr. Barnes as a representative of the so-called insurgents in the state senate when in 1911 that body was deadlocked over the selection of a United States senator to succeed Chauncey M. DePue. He swore that Mr. Barnes expressed himself as being against the selection of Martin W. Littleton because he thought "Mr. Littleton might at any time become identified with Tammany Hall."

Mr. Sheehan told of talking to Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall about his candidacy. He said "Mr. Murphy favored my candidacy before he changed his mind" and that he considered Mr. Murphy a leader of the Democratic party in New York county, but had not regarded him a leader of the party in the state.

Mr. Sheehan answered in the negative a question as to whether he had gone before the legislature as Mr. Murphy's candidate. William M. Ivins, chief counsel for Mr. Barnes asked the witness whether he had been offered Republican votes in 1911. Mr. Sheehan gave an affirmative answer. He emphatically denied that he personally or through any agent had ever discussed his candidacy with Mr. Barnes.

WORLD COURT CONGRESS WILL CONVENE IN CLEVELAND TODAY

CLEVELAND, O., May 11.—The warring nations of Europe are about ready to join with the neutral countries in appropriating the plan of the world court congress, which convenes here tomorrow, for an international court of justice, John Hays Hammond, chairman of the congress, indicated today.

Mr. Hammond who came to Cleveland ahead of the other delegates said that the congress hopes to have its plan for an international tribunal ready for acceptance by the powers, in principle at least, before the end of the present war.

TWO BIG BATTLES IN PROGRESS IN EUROPE

GERMANS CONTINUE ATTACKS ON BRITISH EAST OF YPRES

Prussians Show no Sign of Slackening—Many Believe Biggest Effort Yet Undertaken to Reach French Coast Ports is Under Way.

LONDON, May 11.—(10:40 p. m.)—With two of the greatest battles of the war in progress—one between Arras and the Belgian coast and the other in western Galicia—to say nothing of the operations in the Dardanelles and lesser engagements along the eastern and western fronts, the armies of the belligerents are now fully occupied.

Belgians Assume Offensive.

The battle in northern France and Flanders might be divided in three sections. From the coast to Dixmude the Belgians, supported by French marines, have taken the offensive and, besides repulsing German counter attacks, have gained a footing on the right bank of the Yser canal. Around Ypres, particularly to the east of that town, the Germans continue to attack the British lines and are again using gas and a tremendous amount of artillery but according to the British versions, without making any impression. Further to the south, as far as Arras, the French continue their offensive and have made very material progress, capturing a number of Germans with guns and machine guns.

Bring Up Troops by Motor.

The greatest interest is attached to the French movements. According to the French report, the Germans, their railway lines having been damaged by allied airmen, have brought up reinforcements by motor cars. These have been met by the concentrated fire of the French artillery. In fact the artillery is becoming more and more the determining factor in the war. Around Ypres, the Germans before launching their attacks, which have been delivered on successive days, thoroughly searched the ground with heavy and light guns, subjecting the British to a bombardment such as they themselves received at Nueve Chapelle. Officers and men who have escaped from it state that the trenches were utterly destroyed and the ground churned up by the shells.

No Signs of Slackening.

Nevertheless the British found some kind of shelter and when the German infantry tried to advance they were mowed down. There are no signs, however, of the German attacks slackening. The Germans are reported to be concentrating more levies in Belgium, ready to take the place of, or give support to, those now on the firing line. Indeed many believe that the biggest effort yet undertaken to reach the French coast ports is now under way.

The Russians are making desperate efforts to stop the Austro-German onrush in western Galicia and are fighting stubborn rear guard actions, in an endeavor to hold the German allies until reinforcements can come up.

Russ Continue Attacks.

Despite the serious reverse they have suffered in the western part of the province the Russians continue their attacks in eastern Galicia and along the eastern section of the Carpathians.

At the other end of the line in the Baltic provinces the Russians apparently have brought up a force sufficiently strong to drive back the German raiders who were threatening Mitau. Seemingly they are leaving the Germans in undisputed possession for the present of Libau.

SINK AUSTRALIAN SUBMARINE.

LONDON, May 11.—(11:50 p. m.)—The admiralty tonight issued the following statement: "A Turkish official communication, coming by way of Berlin and Amsterdam, says the Australian submarine A. E. 2, has been sunk by Turkish warships while trying to enter the Sea of Marmora and that the crew of three officers and 29 men were taken prisoners. No confirmation of this report so far has been received at the admiralty."

War News Summarized

Again the western war theater holds the center of interest. In France and Belgium the Germans are delivering heavy attacks against Belgians, British and French. They have brought up strong forces of artillery and have subjected the British particularly in the neighborhood of Ypres, to a mighty bombardment. The French war office declares that not only have the Belgians and British repulsed the German attacks with heavy losses to their adversaries, but that the French themselves have made marked progress to the north of Arras, where an important German work and a series of trenches have been carried; have occupied a big block house and the Chapel of Notre Dame d'Oratoire, a strongly fortified position which the Germans had defeated for months; have gained possession of a section of the village of Carency and are threatening the German lines of communication. Regarding the eastern campaign, Vienna asserts that the Teutonic allies continue their victorious campaign against the Russians in Galicia and the Carpathian region and also that a strong force of Russians has been repulsed near the Bukovina boundary. The Russians however have succeeded in getting a footing on the southern bank of the Dniester near Horodinka and the fighting there continues.

The opinion prevails in Rome that Italy's entry into the war is the question of days while along the border the universal feeling is that it is a matter of hours. The peace party however, hopes that the country will remain neutral.

VOICE PRIDE AND CONFIDENCE IN THE UNITED STATES NAVY

Sons of Revolution Tender Luncheon to Admiral Fletcher and Officers of the Atlantic Fleet.

New York, May 11.—Pride in the United States navy and confidence, that if called upon to vindicate the honor of the nation it would uphold the heroic traditions of its past, were voiced at a luncheon tended today to Admiral Fletcher and the officers of the Atlantic fleet at Fraunces Tavern by the Sons of the Revolution. The occasion was one of the many events arranged for the entertainment of the fleet during its visit to New York and was followed tonight by a reception to the officers at the New York Yacht club.

The enlisted men, meanwhile, were again enjoying to the full the baseball and theatre parties which are a daily feature of the entertainment provided by the citizens' committee.

The guests for the luncheon assembled in the historic room where George Washington parted from his officers and Washington as the first commander-in-chief of the United States navy, was in part the theme of the addresses.

James M. Beck, former attorney general, the principal speaker, declared that if Washington had been present "He would share with us the pride and gratification that we all take in the navy of the United States and in the confident expectation that if the time should ever come when that navy would be obliged to vindicate by force the honor of the United States, every member, from the admiral on the bridge to the humblest stoker in the engine room, would unite in passing along as a flaming torch to the next generation the noble and heroic traditions of the American navy."

COMMITTEE VOTES UNFAVORABLE
RECOMMENDATION FOR BILL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 11.—By a vote of fourteen to thirteen the house committee on public utilities, after midnight tonight voted to report out the bill limiting freight trains to fifty cars with the recommendation that it do not pass.

Action upon the measure followed the completion of arguments for and against the measure which consumed the entire evening.

Richard J. Johnson, general manager of the Peoria & Pekin Union and John G. Drennan, attorney for the Illinois Central spoke in opposition to the bill. They were followed by John Mitchell, Charles Adkins and Attorney T. J. Condon favoring the passage of the measure.

PROBE RUMORS THAT VANDERBILT'S BODY HAS BEEN RECOVERED

QUEENSTOWN, May 2.—(3:03 a. m.)—There is a persistent rumor current here that Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's body has been recovered on the Irish coast. Webb Wade, Mr. Vanderbilt's secretary, is investigating the rumor.

Taking Body to Queenstown.
London, May 12.—(2:30 p. m.)—The Daily Mail asserts that the body of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt has been found and is being taken into Queenstown.

TAFT AND DICKINSON
COUNSEL CALMNESS

FORMER PRESIDENT URGES CITIZENS TO STAND BY WILSON

States President is Acting Like Washington, Lincoln and McKinley in Trying to Avoid War—Dickinson Declares "Our Action Should not be Clouded by Passion."

Philadelphia, May 11.—Former President William H. Taft urged patience and calmness in the present international situation and called upon the citizens of the country to stand by President Wilson in an address at the Union League here tonight. Referring to the sinking of the Lusitania, Prof. Taft said "the inhumanity of the circumstances in the case presses us on, but in the heat of even just indignation is not the best time to act, when action involves such momentous consequences and means untold loss of life and treasure."

Things Worse than War.

"There are things worse than war," Mr. Taft declared, "but delay due to calm deliberations cannot change the situation or minimize the effect of what we finally conclude to do. With the present condition of the war in Europe, our action, if it is to be extreme, will not lose efficacy by giving time to the people, whose war it will be, to know what they are facing."

"Under our constitution the president conducts our foreign affairs until congress finds necessary to declare war. Upon him is the acute responsibility in such a crisis. If he were to yield to the cry of extremists and summon congress to take extreme measures he would have great influence with congress under such a provocation. Indeed, the impulse to such action has usually been stronger with congress than with the executive."

"Now it may be that a series of acts of inhumanity and violations of the laws of war to our national detriment and against our citizens may force us on and lead our people to believe that whatever the cost no other course is open to us."

People Must Pay.

"But we must bear in mind that if we have a war it is the people who must pay with lives and money the cost of it and therefore they should not be hurried into the sacrifice until it is clear that they wish it and know what they are doing when they wish it."

"A demand for war that cannot survive the passion of the first days of public indignation and will not endure the test of delay and deliberation by all the people is not one that should be yielded to."

The president, he said, was acting like Washington, Lincoln and McKinley in trying to avoid war. In the present situation it was imperative that he should know the opinion of the country without regard to prejudice.

Dickinson Issues Statement.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Jacob M. Dickinson, secretary of war under President Taft, issued the following statement here today:

"I regard the possibilities of the destruction of American lives on the Lusitania as even more momentous to the nation than those involved in our civil war. No question of maintaining republican institutions was there involved, because, except as to the principle of secession, the examinations of two governments were practically the same. I have no doubt that if the south had succeeded disintegration would have set in and that long before this all the states would have been reunited under one government. The outcome of the present condition may involve us in a career in comparison with which, looking to the life of our nation, the possibilities of the civil war, in any event, were not comparable."

"It is not likely that Germany will disavow the purpose to destroy the Lusitania with full knowledge of the fact that this involved many American lives."

Some Action Must Be Taken.

"In view of the result and the warning given by our government to Germany some proper action must be taken or the American government will incur the contempt of the world and the contempt of a vast number of its own people. What action should be taken should not be declared in advance by those who are not officially responsible to the whole people for the grave results that may follow. It would be unwise to have the public mind committed to particular lines of action before the administration shall declare its purpose. Our judgment and utterances as to what course should be taken should be held in suspense, so that the public without any set views, shall be ready with an open mind to consider the course the administration may adopt. Our nation has stood consistently for peace and arbitration and the exhaustion of all proper peaceable methods to settle international disputes."

Progress Takes Form.
Legislative progress on Governor Dunne's $3,000,000 waterway plan took definite form today when the joint sub-committee of the senate and house waterways committees agreed upon the contents of the measure, instructed attorneys to re-

ILLINOIS SENATE
ASSURES WILSON

Declares People Will Endorse Whatever Action He May Take

LABOR BILLS SURVIVE

Strong Fight is Waged Against Woman's Nine Hour and Child Labor Measures

HOUSE PASSES F. &amp; M. BILL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 11.—The state senate today adopted a resolution assuring President Wilson that the people of Illinois will endorse whatever action he may take for "maintaining the honor and dignity of the nation," in connection with the torpedoing of the Lusitania.

Other resolutions along the same line, but with clauses demanding that the United States build a larger navy and that the shipment of arms and ammunition from this country to belligerents be stopped, had been prepared but were not introduced, because of Governor Dunne's request last week that citizens of Illinois refrain from expressing opinions as to what course this country should pursue at this crisis.

Text of Resolution.

Following is the text of the resolution adopted by the senate:

"Resolved, that the senate, realizing as it does the gravity of the situation confronting President Wilson and regretting the great loss of life of American citizens by the sinking of the Lusitania, conveys to him this message of assurance that the people of Illinois will endorse whatever action he may deem advisable to take for maintaining the honor and dignity of the nation and the preservation of the lives of its citizens."

The resolution was offered by Senator Compton of Macomb. The vote for the resolution was 37 to 1. Senator Harding voting against the resolution and Senator Smith not voting.

The woman's nine hour work day bill and the Shurtleff child labor bill today survived the strongest fight which has been waged against any bill at this session of the legislature. Both were advanced to third reading. Similar unsuccessful attempts were made to invalidate the teacher's pension bill which has been passed by the senate and which is a special order in the house tomorrow.

House Passes F. & M. Bill.

By a vote of 102 to 0 the house passed the second food and mouth emergency appropriation bill, providing for the payment of fifty percent of the cost of burying slaughtered animals, buying disinfectants and disinfecting premises paying certain claims for slaughtered cattle and paying veterinarians. The house killed the Smeekal bill, which some members contended would permit fraternal insurance companies to write old line insurance without the restrictions which E. & M. bill, the vote was announced. Representative Smeekal moved that further consideration of the bill be postponed. This technically keeps the bill alive. The house also passed a bill giving boards of supervisors and county commissioners the right, by a majority to specify the type roads to be constructed in a county.

Galleries Frequently Applaud.

Consideration of the McCormick woman's nine hour bill and the Shurtleff child labor bill had been made a special order for today and when the house met, the galleries were packed with women and representatives or organized labor. During the heated debate on these measures the galleries frequently applauded so long and loud that Speaker Shanahan had to rap for order. Friends of the bill providing for the state regulation of private banks today practically gave up hope for the passage of their measure. After hearing arguments the house committee on banking today referred it to a sub-committee.

The minimum wage bill providing for the appointment by the governor of a minimum wage commission consisting of five members, was acted on favorably in the house committee on industrial affairs.

The measure introduced by Representative Burns and slightly amended provides for a commission to fix minimum wages for women and minors.

Germany Must Explain.

President Wilson and the cabinet were yesterday engaged in the momentous task of framing the communication to be sent to Germany, demanding an explanation of a series of events which culminated with the sinking of the Lusitania and the loss of more than a hundred American lives. The president realizes the deep feeling there is in the United States on the subject and the note to be sent to Germany will make clear this feeling and will be so worded as to convey to Germany the thought that the U. S. will insist that the rules heretofore recognized by international law as those established for maritime warfare be adhered to strictly. This government will hold that while Germany may have given notice of an intention to attack and sink the Lusitania, such notice did not justify the act or make it lawful.

The communication to Germany it is said will be exceedingly firm and while the president and cabinet recognize that grave results would likely follow Germany's refusal to comply with the United States demands and requirements there is still a feeling of hopefulness that serious differences may be avoided. In this time of peril and stress, the people have unbounded faith in the president and his cabinet and know that whatever the action taken that it will be with the dual purpose of seeking to preserve the honor of this nation and yet if possible to contribute to the peace of the world. At this time prayer and patriotism both stir the hearts of all Americans, prayer that peace may continue and patriotism that will not die, come what may.

The Riggs Bank Case.

The supreme court of the District of Columbia will be the scene today of the opening of the legal battle between the Riggs National Bank of Washington and the treasury officials of the United States. So serious are the charges and countercharges made in the public prints last month, that only small hope is held out that a great political and financial battle may be avoided and the court proceedings held within the bounds of defining the powers of the Comptroller of Currency and the privileges of a National bank. An eleventh hour treaty of peace is hardly possible, so bitter are the parties to the dispute and so besmirching are the charges if they are left unchallenged.

The defendants in the case are Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo, Comptroller of the Currency John Skelton Williams, and Treasurer of the United States John Burke. By inference the Administration is lined up with its officials. On the opposing side the Riggs Bank has not only the moral and financial support of its American and foreign affiliations, but also that of the National City Bank of New York, with which it is intimately identified.

The trouble between the Riggs Bank, which is one of the most famous institutions in the world, and the present heads of the Treasury Department, dates back to the opening of the Wilson administration, when Comptroller Williams, then Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, refused desk room to a representative of the National City Bank of New York. This privilege had been accorded the National City Bank, for the purpose of copying from national bank statements information that was available to the press. This action developed considerable feeling, and a New York paper began publishing an alleged expose of Comptroller Williams, in connection with the sale of the United States Trust Company to the Munsey Trust Company. It was asserted by Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams that the officials of the Riggs Bank had inspired these articles, but this accusation was denied by the bank. When Williams was nominated as Comptroller, the Senate committee investigated and officials of the Riggs Bank testified. Williams was confirmed by the Senate, and since then the struggle of the bank and the treasury officials has developed in fury, until it culminated in the courts.

On April 12, proceedings in equity were filed to secure an injunction against Messrs. Williams, McAdoo and Burke, to restrain the defendants from covering in the treasury interest payments due on bonds owned by the bank and alleged to have been unlawfully withheld to penalize the bank. The court proceedings were precipitated when the bank officers failed to comply with a demand for the history of all loans to its officers or members of families since the bank was organized 18 years ago.

IDENTIFY TEN OF SIXTEEN DEAD PICKED UP BY DUTCH TUG POOLZEE

Two Are Americans—Mrs. Stewart Mason of Boston and Mrs. Della Condon of New York.

Queenstown, May 11.—(11:25 p. m.)—The identification of ten of the sixteen dead picked up during last night by the Dutch Tug Poolzee, chartered by the Cunard company, twenty miles west of the spot where the Lusitania was sunk, was the only incident of the day tending to relieve the depressing routine.

Among the sixteen dead brought in by the tug only two were bodies of Americans—Mrs. Stewart Mason of Boston and Mrs. Della Condon, wife of Terrence Condon of New York.

The American consul claimed both and will send them to the United States.

Delays Arrival of Bodies.

Ten bodies from Baltimore and two from Costletownsend were expected to arrive at Queenstown this afternoon on the tug Flying Fox but an elaborate coroner insisted on a formal inquest before releasing them and it was doubtful tonight when the bodies will reach here. At this delay Alfred Gyne Vanderbilt's English secretary Webb Wade, entered a vigorous protest saying he would motor to Baltimore if he could expedite matters, yet he hesitated to take the trip, fearing to pass the bodies, which might be started for Queenstown at any moment.

There is considerable indignation among some of the survivors who say that full measures to recover the floating dead have not been adopted but the Cunard officials assert that it is almost impossible to enquire of other crews as all of them have been commended by the British admiralty. The Tug Poolzee was found in this harbor only by chance.

Plenty of War Craft Available. There are plenty of British war craft available for the search but it is considered that it would be inviting submarine attacks to cruise around the scene of the disaster.

The Poolzee went as far south as Cape Clear and returned with quantities of the Lusitania's lighted deck furniture. A misty rain was falling when the tug landed the dead. A small crowd stood uncovered as the bodies were carried into the Cunard offices.

Three small children, only two of whom could be identified tonight, brought home the horror more than anything else. All three were found floating without life belts.

STATES ROOSEVELT HURLED AN INSULT TO WHOLE GERMAN PEOPLE

BERLIN, via London, May 12.—(4:11 a. m.)—The attention of Baron Mumm von Schwarzenstein, who after long years of diplomatic service is now occupying a high position in the German foreign office, has been called to the sharp criticisms of Germany in the American press in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania, the words attributed to ex-President Roosevelt that the sinking of the Lusitania was the greatest act of piracy in history being especially emphasized. The baron authorized the following statement:

"If Mr. Roosevelt used these words, then he hurled an insult at the whole German people, which we bitterly resent, even at a time when we have to submit to the hatred and falsity of enemies and former friends. He insulted, without excuse, men, who, fearless of death, discharged their duty to the Fatherland in the hour of need without hope of booty."

ROOSEVELT PLEADS FOR PROMPT ACTION

STATES COUNTRY SHOULD FORBID ALL COMMERCE WITH GERMANY

Comments on President Wilson's Speech at Philadelphia—Declares Commerce With France and England Should Be Encouraged.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 11.—Former President Theodore Roosevelt tonight made a plea for prompt action by the United States on account of the Lusitania disaster while commenting on President Wilson's speech of last night to a gathering of naturalized Americans in Philadelphia. Mr. Roosevelt was particularly interested in that part of the president's speech in which the latter referred to "such a thing as a man being too proud to fight," and a nation being so "right that it does not need to convince others by force that it is right."

Points to China.

"I think that China is entitled to draw all the comfort she can from this statement," said Mr. Roosevelt, "and it would be well for the United States to ponder seriously what the effect upon China has been of managing her foreign affairs during the last fifteen years on the theory thus enunciated."

"If the United States is satisfied with occupying some time in the future the precise international position that China now occupies, then the United States can afford to act on this theory. But it cannot act on this theory if it desires to retain or regain the position won for it under Washington and the men who in the days of Abraham Lincoln wore the blue under Grant and the gray under Lee."

Hopes For Prompt Action.

"I very earnestly hope that he will act promptly. The proper time for deliberation was prior to sending the message that our government would hold Germany to a 'strict accountability' if it did the things which it has now actually done."

"The 150 babies drowned on the Lusitania, the hundreds of women drowned with them—scores of these women and children being Americans—and the American ship, the Gulfight, which was torpedoed, offer an eloquent commentary on the actual working of the theory that it is not necessary to assert rights and that a policy of blood and iron can with efficacy be met with a policy of blood and water."

"I see it stated in the dispatches from Washington that Germany now offers to stop the practice of murder on the high seas committed in violation of the neutral rights she is pledged to preserve if we will now abandon further neutral rights, which by her treaty she has solemnly pledged to see that we exercise without molestation. Such a proposal is not even entitled to an arrest. The manufacture and shipment of arms and ammunition to any belligerent is moral or immoral, according to the use to which the arms and munitions are to be put. If they are to be used to prevent the redress of hideous wrongs inflicted on Belgium then it is immoral to ship them. If they are to be used for the redress of those wrongs and the restoration of Belgium to her deeply-wronged and unoffending people then it is immaterially moral to send them."

Should Take Effective Action.

"Without twenty-four hours delay this country should and could take effective action by declaring that in view of Germany's murderous offenses against the rights of neutrals all commerce with Germany shall be forthwith forbidden and all commerce of every kind permitted and encouraged with France, England and the rest of the civilized world. This would not be a declaration of war. It would merely prevent munitions of war being sent to a power, which by its conduct has shown willingness to use munitions for the slaughter of unoffending men, women and children."

"I do not believe that the firm assertion of our rights means war, but it is well to remember there are things worse than war. Let us as a nation understand that peace is of worth only when it is the hand maiden of international righteousness and of national self-respect."

KING GEORGE ORDERS SUSPENSION OF CELEBRATION

The foregoing announcement was made public tonight by the British official press bureau. King George was born June 2nd, 1865.

AUTOISTS IN NARROW ESCAPE WHEN CAR GOES OVER BRIDGE

J. W. Hamilton, a brother of Geo. W. Hamilton, residing on East North street, had an experience recently in auto riding which was all of his kind that he wants for some time.

Mr. Hamilton resides in Greenfield and is a traveling representative for a St. Louis grocery house. A. M. Story, mail route agent out of Greenfield, was enjoying a vacation from his postal duties and at the solicitation of Mr. Hamilton agreed to take him in his Maxwell car to Rockbridge, where Mr. Hamilton wished to call on some customers.

They made the trip going all right, but on the return the driver lost control of the car in some unaccountable manner as it was approaching a bridge just north of Rockbridge and the Maxwell dashed into the baluster or hand rail of the bridge with such force as to break it off and the car dived head first into a nine-foot ravine on the west side of the bridge, alighting on the rocks below with such force that two of the tires exploded. It then toppled over on its side.

The driver was bent over the steering wheel and his head was forced through the windshield, cutting him about the head and face quite severely. Mr. Hamilton who was flung into the water of the creek was somewhat bruised but both men were able to walk back to Rockbridge where they obtained assistance in getting the auto on the road again. Outside of the top, windshield, radiator and hood the car was little damaged. It was a close call for the occupants of the car who were fortunate in their escape from more serious injury.

TWENTY GOVERNMENT WITNESSES TESTIFY IN DARNELL TRIAL

Burden of Testimony is to Effect that He Posed as Husband of Ruth Soper and Lived with Ethel Spurgeon as His Wife.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 11.—Twenty witnesses for the government from various walks of life, including four clergymen, testified today in the trial of James Morrison Darnell, charged with violating the Mann white slave act in transporting Ruth Soper from Owatonna, Minn., to Chicago and thence to Kenosha. The burden of the testimony was to the effect that Darnell posed as the husband of Ruth Soper to several persons in Kenosha and that he lived with Ethel Spurgeon of Avon, Ill., at Owatonna, as his wife.

The Rev. Myron E. Adams of Chicago testified that he married the defendant and Doris Vaughn on Nov. 3rd, 1914, and Mrs. Mary Bradford, Kenosha, stated that while Darnell admitted an alliance with Ethel Spurgeon, in Minnesota, and that he introduced Ruth Soper as his wife, he admitted, according to Mrs. Bradford, that he had married but one woman, Doris Vaughn of Chicago.

Another important witness was Assistant State's Attorney Charles C. Case, Jr., of Cook county, Illinois, who declared that Darnell informed him in January last that what purported to be a marriage license obtained at Hammond, Ind., for the marriage to Ruth Soper was bogus.

FREDERICK C. TANNER WILL WED MISS JANE OGDEN OF ALBANY

Engagement of Chairman of New York Republican State Committee Is Announced—Bride-to-Be Is Prominent Socially.

An Albany dispatch to the New York Evening Times gave the following notice of the engagement of Frederick C. Tanner, son of Mrs. Marian Tanner of this city.

"The engagement of Miss Jane Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ogden of this city, to Frederick C. Tanner, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, was announced here today. Miss Ogden, a tall blonde, has been a favorite in the younger set of society both in this city and in New Orleans. She made her debut three years ago.

"Charles Ogden, father of Miss Ogden, is a prominent architect at the Capitol. Miss Ogden is a graduate of St. Agnes School in Albany and spent two years in Miss Bennett's finishing school at Millbrook, N. Y. Two years ago she made an extensive tour of Europe, Egypt, and the Nile, and while abroad was received in audience at the Vatican by the late Pope Pius X. She is interested in many charities and during the last winter formed a sewing class for the relief of the Belgian sufferers.

"Mr. Tanner, who is here as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention, was born in Jacksonville, Ill., and is 37 years of age. His father, Edward A. Tanner, was President of Illinois College. The late Stewart L. Woodford, who was a Brigadier General in the civil war, and subsequently Lieutenant Governor of this State and United States Minister to Spain during the period preceding the Spanish-American War, was his cousin.

"Mrs. Charles Ogden announced her daughter's engagement at a luncheon given today at the Ogden residence. Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, wife of Governor Whitman, attended the luncheon. The other guests included Mmes. Russell Sarg, Hiland Batcheller, Moncure Carpenter, Frederick Peabody, Kenneth Ogden, Willis Hanson, Jr., Richard MacDonald Nelson, and the Misses Albe Williams, Dorothy Arnold, Eleanor Twining, Grace Carter, Ruth Peabody, Peggy Cox, Wynanda Boardman, Lila Paige, Marjorie Waterman and Marjorie Whitney."

DR. F. A. NORRIS HAS OPPORTUNITY TO JOIN BRITISH SURGICAL CORPS

Receives Invitation From Dr. John B. Murphy and Dr. J. M. Ness—Will not be Able to Accept Invitation.

Dr. F. A. Norris yesterday received a telegram from Dr. John B. Murphy professor of surgery in Northwestern Medical school, and Dr. J. M. Ness of Spokane, Washington, urging him to join a corps of 32 physicians who will go to England to work with the British army in England and on the battle field. The party will leave about the first of June and the stay is to be indefinite. Transportation is to be furnished and the remuneration ample.

The invitation coming as it did emphasizes the professional esteem in which Dr. Norris is held. He is a graduate of Northwestern with the class of 1903 and was under Dr. Murphy. At that time Dr. Ness was an assistant to Dr. Murphy. Dr. Norris regrets that he will be unable to accept the offer although he realizes the wonderful opportunities it affords. It will be remembered that Dr. Norris was in Europe at the time the war broke out and had to shorten his stay there on that account.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS DISCUSSED MANY SUBJECTS

Meeting of Retailers Will Be Held Thursday Night When State Secretary Will Be Present—One Man Car System Not Approved and Jitney Regulation Suggested.

The monthly meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday night. When President Reeve gave the call to order the roll call showed practically every member present. Various reports were presented and then an hour was spent in an informal discussion of problems of interest to the city. The range of subjects included utility franchises, the general school law, street car service, street paving, telephone service. There was a general protest against the one man car system now being used on the street railway and there was the expressed sentiment also that there should be some regulation of jitney service.

One of the first subjects discussed was relative to the intervening space between the state aid road on Morton highway and the Hardin avenue pavement, the matter being brought to attention by F. J. Heintz. Farmers have raised a sum sufficient to pay part of the cost of the additional road needed. A plan for the city to care for the remainder needed will be considered. Mr. Heintz also reported that the work of marking automobile trails costs about $2 per mile and that more of it is to be done in the county.

Frank Byrns and Secretary Weber called attention to the meeting of retailers to be held Thursday night of this week when C. F. DeWendt, secretary of the state association, will be here to make an address. All business men are invited. The convention of postal clerks is to be held here May 31 and June 1st and $20 was voted toward the entertainment fund. Secretary Weber also announced that Bluffs is to start a commercial club May 18th and members of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce have been invited to assist.

Mention was made of the improvements to be made at the Illinois hotel and the suggestion was offered by M. F. Dunlap that with adequate hotel facilities Jacksonville could get a great many conventions. The Chamber of Commerce will join with the local U. C. T. members in an effort to have the next state meeting held here. Merchants have agreed to pay $200 toward the $1000 entertainment fund. The secretary reported H. S. Greenstone and J. B. Clark as new members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mayor Rodgers spoke of the need of paving work on State and Main streets and Secretary Weber said that it is planned to have a meeting of property owners on State street at the Chamber of Commerce quarters to talk about a new pavement. Dr. Bowe said that nothing should be done in this line until after franchise matters are settled. From this the talk changed to the one man street car system which was condemned as a step backward. It was the expressed sentiment that the company is making a mistake by the adoption of this system but that since the company has no franchise that the city cannot regulate its acts. In the question of telephone service there was a unanimity of opinion that if the law makes it possible to require an interchange of service between two companies that this should be required here. The directors adjourned after some informal discussion of the general school law.

ITALY IN STATE OF INDECISION;

HALTING BETWEEN TWO OPINIONS

ROME, May 11.—(11:55 p. m.)—Italy is in a state of indecision with regard to her stand for or against war. She is halting between the opinion of former Premier Giolitti, who believes it would be better to avoid war, and that of the cabinet.

The cabinet is credited by the Giornale d'Italia, which is supposed to reflect the government's views, with holding the conviction that Italy for complex and grave reasons cannot accept the scant offers of Austria even putting aside the delay with which they were made and considers it more advantageous to join the war on the side of the allies.

The opposite opinion of such an authoritative parliamentary man as Giolitti, the newspaper adds, cannot make the cabinet recede from the resolution it has arrived at after long and conscientious diplomatic work and the military preparations that have been made. Signor Giolitti, it is declared, will support the cabinet even if war is declared, putting his patriotic duty above a difference of opinion.

CHARLES DARNELL'S TRIAL

BEGINS AT MILWAUKEE

Minister Must Answer for Actions in Violation of the Mann Act.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 11.—Rev.

James Morrison Darnell, the much-quoted preacher of Kenosha, Wis.,

will be taken into the U. S. district court today for trial under the Mann white slave act. Darnell's escapades were exposed last January, while he was occupying the pulpit of a prominent church, and his exit from Kenosha occurred at 3 o'clock one morning, it was said, after resigning. The complaint against the preacher was signed by the Chicago investigator for the government, and it charges that on November 20, 1914, Darnell illegally transported Ruth Soper from her home in Owatonna, Minn.,

to Chicago and thence to Kenosha.

Ruth Soper is the mother of his four year old son. Miss Soper is the daughter of a Minnesota publisher, and was a co-ed at the University of Chicago when Darnell was completing his theological studies there.

According to the stories told in Kenosha, Rev. Darnell told the trustees of the church that he was married and would bring his wife to that city later. He had met in Chicago,

17-year old Doris Vaughn, and after a whirlwind courtship, married her.

Telling his bride he was soon to prepare a home for her, he kissed her goodbye and took up his church duties at Kenosha.

Soon after his arrival in Kenosha, his "wife and baby" arrived. The wife was Ruth Soper, it is alleged.

Then came a letter to the minister that his Chicago bride was coming.

Rumors were flying about the church wardens investigated. Rev.

Darnell leaving town immediately afterward.

Meanwhile his Chicago wife

Doris Vaughn Darnell began divorce proceedings, and testified that she had visited Kenosha, at which time her husband had confessed to her he was living with another woman.

According to his Chicago wife,

Darnell had previously married

Ethel Spurgeon Darnell of Avon, Ill.,

who divorced him.

WAVE OF ANTI-GERMAN FEELING

SURGES THROUGH ENGLAND

Germans in Liverpool Have Been Interned—Those Who are Naturalized

Subjects Have Been Advised to Go into Interior Towns.

London, May 11.—(9:30 p. m.)—

Never since the war began has such a wave of anti-German feeling surged through the country as at the present time. It is due entirely to the sinking of the Lusitania.

Workmen in the industrial district are refusing to labor along side of men of German birth, whether they are naturalized or not. In many towns the premises occupied by Germans have been stormed and damaged or destroyed and even the exterior towns or to seek internment.

This evening deputations from the stock exchange, the Baltic Exchange,

Lloyds and the Corn Exchange after a meeting on the steps of the Royal Exchange marched to the house of commons and presented a petition to the attorney general which called attention to the grave danger that exists by allowing alien enemies to remain at large in the country. A public meeting will be held at the Mansion House on the subject of alien enemies. It will be the forerunner of meetings of protest which are to be held all over the country.

STATEMENT SHOWS THE CITY'S TOTAL INDEBTEDNESS

Council Confronted With Problem of Caring for Floating and Current Obligations.

After a consultation with Mayor Rodgers and the commissioners, W. F. Widmayer, commissioner of accounts and finances, has had a summary of the city's financial statement compiled. An effort was made to secure an absolutely complete list of the city's obligations, and if anything is not included in the figures quoted herewith, the sum is comparatively insignificant. On the face of the showing made, the city now has a total bonded indebtedness of $96,000, and a floating indebtedness of $42,397.21, in addition to the anticipation warrants which total $39,291.34. The floating debt is made up of the several sums enumerated, and it is the question of taking care of this indebtedness and of the general running expenses of the city which now confronts the commissioners. All or practically all of the tax money has already been paid over to the city, so that the expected revenue for the remainder of the year will only be that received through the water department and through collections made in the clerk's office, for the cemetery funds or other special amounts. All together these collections cannot possibly be, based upon experience, equal to the necessary monthly expenditure for the remainder of the year. There are some citizens who are favorable to the idea of securing a bond issue of large enough amount to take care of all the floating debt and to cover some additions needed, both for the light and water department, beside a sum greatly needed to pay the city's proportion in certain street paving work which would be very desirable. There is some doubt as to whether these expenditures and debts could legally be taken care of with a bond issue, and so it is this question or some other by which money can be provided for taking care of the debts and paying the running expenses which the commission must solve. While the total bonded indebtedness is now $96,000 this sum will be reduced in July by $10,000, as $4,000 of registered bonds and $6,000 of non-registered bonds will be refunded at that time, thus reducing the total to $86,000. This is regarded by persons familiar with the financial conditions of most cities as a very favorable one, and the cities are few, indeed, which have as low a bonded indebtedness as the figures quoted indicate. Legally a city can levy five percent of its assessed valuation which in the case of Jacksonville means that the city could carry somewhat in excess of $200,000, so that after July 1st Jacksonville will be at least $114,000 under the bond indebtedness limit made possible under the law.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

London, May 11.—(9:52 p. m.)—The British war office made public tonight the following communication:

"Yesterday afternoon the Germans made another attack east of Ypres, in the neighborhood of the Menin road. Although they subjected our trenches to a very heavy bombardment and made their infantry advance under cover of poisonous gas their gun fire failed.
"Today there have been artillery actions on the greater part of the front."

Paris, May 11.—(10:50 p. m.)—The following official note concerning the operations in the Dardanelles was issued tonight. On the evening of May 8th, the Franco-British forces operating in the south of the Gallipoli peninsula delivered a general attack supported by the guns of the allied fleet against the Turkish positions which already had been penetrated the day before.

"Our troops with conspicuous spirit and courage, carried at the point of the bayonet several lines of trenches on the heights in the neighborhood of Krithia. On May 8th, they consolidated and fortified themselves on the ground conquered the previous day. The Turks have made no attempt to deliver a counter-attack."

Paris, May 11.—(10:55 p. m.)—The following official communication was issued by the French war office tonight:

"To the north of Dixmude the Belgian troops who have succeeded in throwing up a bridge head on the right bank of the Yser were subjected to violent attacks by three German battalions last night. The Belgians repulsed these inflicting on the enemy heavy losses and taking about fifty prisoners."

"Another Belgian division has gained ground to the south of Dixmude."

"Our success to the north of Arras was sensibly enlarged today during the course of the fighting. In an engagement of extreme violence in front of Loos, we captured, after a desperate struggle and despite an intense cannonade an important German work and an entire system of trenches constructed along road from Loos to Vermelles."

"Further to the south we captured by assault the big block house and chapel of Notre Dame d'Lolette. This position had been ardently defended for months by the Germans. It was surrounded and invested and was taken this afternoon by our troops. We have, without pause pursued our success in pressing the enemy energetically between the chapel of Notre Dame d'Lolette and Ablain-St. Nazaire. All the German trenches to the south of the chapel have fallen successively into our hands.
"The Germans debouching from Ablain-St. Nazaire delivered a counter attack, which was immediately crushed."

"We have also taken the offensive and gained ground in the direction of the sugar refinery at Souchez. At Carency the investment of the German position has been drawn tighter by us. We have occupied several blocks of houses in the eastern part of the village and made fifty prisoners of whom one was an officer and we have progressed toward the wood east of the village. The communication of Carency and Ablain-St. Souchez are becoming more and more difficult for the enemy."

"After a violent engagement, we took possession of the cemetery at Neuville-St. Vaast, which had been strongly organized by the Germans and followed this with an advance to the southeast of the village beyond which we extended our lines west and east."

"In the sector of Loos-Arras, where we previously carried three lines of German trenches, fighting is now going on along the fourth lines. Prisoners, whose numbers continue to increase declare that the order was and block house of Notre Dame d'Lolette."

"On the rest of the front there is nothing of importance to report there being merely artillery actions."

CHAPIN.

C. F. Duckett is preparing to build a new concrete block restaurant and confectionery building on the corner where the post office is now located. Concrete steps just completed at the new opera house adds much to its appearance and is a fine piece of work done by Robert Bridgman. The skating rink in the basement of the new opera house seems to be doing good business running four nights each week and every one attending seems to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

An orchestra has been organized by the Christian church Bible school under the leadership of the pastor, L. Hadaway. Frank Anderson who took the examination some time ago for the rural mail service has just received his grades having successfully passed the examination.

T. H. Stone has purchased the Post Office building and will move it on to his lots on Catalpa avenue and make a dwelling out of it.

Z. Fox is the proud possessor of a new Dodge car, the first one of its kind in this vicinity. It is a beauty. A musical concert was given at the Christian church Monday night under the auspices of the men's bible class and all present declared it to be a grand treat.

The C. W. B. of the Christian church will hold their regular monthly meeting today, (Wednesday) at the home of Mrs. Monte Funk.

READING FICTION

"I haven't time for reading fiction," said Jinks, in chaste and polished diction. "My mind's engaged with matters weighty; let triflers read the authors skater, who write fool tales of love and wooing, of girls and villains still pursuing. The facts of life are far more thrilling than any novel for a shilling; and life's too short, my goal too distant, to read of people non-existent." How tiresome are those fellows' railings, who pride themselves upon their failings! The man who will not read a story when he finds one that's hunkydory, a zipping novel, double-loaded, is fat of soul and leather-headed. You find this bore in every station, the man with no imagination, who thinks all things but Facts are ratty, who sees in Scott a man gone batty. He bores his fellowmen and brothers, and bores himself far more than others, for he who spends no time in choosing a stock of yarns, and them pursuing, has no resources when he's weary, and finds himself a fossil dreary. No man is stupid-er or blinder; I'd rather hear a coffee grinder, with all its useless noise and friction, than list to him who reads no fiction.

Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

MARKET LETTERS

Kansas City Livestock Market.

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 10.—More than 12,000 stockers and feeders were bought here last week on the break of 25 to 50 cents inaugurated first of the week. This number cleaned up the supply, and left the market free to register the full amount of strength that developed this morning on receipts of 7,500 cattle which supply was quite a reduction from recent Mondays. Fat cattle are selling 10 to 15c higher today and stockers and feeders are unevenly higher, the better grades selling at $7.75 to $8.25, medium grades $7.00 to $7.75. Some sugar beet pulp feeders sold at $7.75 this morning, and choice high bred Panhandle feeders brought $8.25, the top. Kansas pastures are in fine condition, and are lightly stocked, fewer cattle having been brought up from Texas this spring than usual, conditions that make the Kansas men strong buyers. They are taking good weight steers as a rule. A feature of the fat cattle market in the last week encouraging to stocker and feeder buyers is the stronger prices being paid for heavy steers, sales of cattle weighing over 1,400 lbs., being made here today at $8.00 to $8.50, considered 10 to 15c higher. J. E. Davidson, of Wapello, Ia., who was here last week buying stock steers, commenting on the general situation, remarked, "We need a good many cattle and while these high prices stagger us, there seems to be a feeling abroad that this is going to be a good corn year, and that grass will be good. This may have something to do with stimulating the market for young cattle." Choice cows are selling at $6.00 to $6.50, good heifer calves $6.50 to $7.50, according to weight, well bred, thin necked young bulls that will look like steers in the fall $5.75 to $6.35.

DRINK AN ABUNDANCE OF WATER IF YOU WOULD KEEP DISEASE AWAY

By Partaking of Nature's Beverage
Freely Many Chronic Diseases May Be Cured.

"A gallon a day will keep the doctor away." That is what a physician of this city said when asked if it was a good thing to drink much water, the Kansas City Star states. Doctors disagree about whether it is good to drink water with meals, the majority believing that food should not be washed down with liquids, but should be thoroughly chewed and mixed with saliva, which is an aid to digestion. But several doctors who were asked about it recently asserted that it was good to drink even as much as a quart of water with meals.

Unanimous for H<sub>2</sub>O.

All of the seven doctors who were interviewed about the benefits of water drinking agreed that the copious drinking of water was a preventative of disease, and they had known many cases in which health was restored by the drinking of water in large quantities. One doctor advocated the drinking of as much as three gallons of water a day in very warm weather, reducing the amount when the weather is cooler. But never drinking less than a gallon a day.

"Why," said this physician, "two thirds of the weight of the body is water. In a very warm day in August an average man who is at work will perspire from two to six quarts of water a day. Where is it coming from if you don't drink it? Many poisons excreted by the body are excreted through the pores of the skin in perspiration. Many persons think they are not perspiring unless they can see beads of water on the skin. But we perspire at all times, walking, and sleeping, and we do not see it because it evaporates immediately. It is almost impossible to drink too much water."

At Least a Gallon a Day.

Another doctor said: "I saw a short article in the Star the other evening quoting an eminent medical authority as saying that all girls and women who wished to have a good complexion should drink two quarts of water a day. I would double that and advise them to drink four quarts a day. Give the body plenty of pure water, inside and outside, a gallon a day inside, a thorough bathing of the whole body at least once a day, fresh air all the time, night and day, and plenty of exercise, preferably by outdoor walking, and you can't very well be sick. If every one would do that, one half the doctors would have to seek some other business. If every woman would do that the rouge and complexion power factories would shut down. There is nothing so good as plenty of water drunk every day for the complexion."

A physician said: "I am not claiming that the drinking of plenty of water is a preventative of all diseases, that would be misleading and silly, but I will say this: I have cured several bad cases of rheumatism and many cases of stomach ailments with water alone. In those cases the patients were in the habit of drinking very little water. I prescribed a qt. of water before breakfast each morning and a gallon drunk throughout the day, and a quart on going to bed at night. It worked a cure in each case."

Washes Out Toxic Poisons

"I say this most emphatically, that a half gallon or a gallon of water a day will help wash out the toxic poisons that are formed in the body and will tend to keep a person in good health and help him resist disease."

"There is constantly being accumulated in the body not only waste matter, resulting from chemical changes taking place in the upkeep of vital energy, but also the blood takes up toxic poisons from the intestines. Unless those things are thrown off by the lungs, skin, kidneys, etc., we become lazy, dyspeptic and uric acid will accumulate and cause rheumatism, kidney disorders and other organic disturbances. Now such conditions would be much less likely to ensue were the simple precaution taken of drinking a pint of water often throughout the day."

Hot Water Beneficial Too.

Especially is this true of persons who take little exercise and who live indoors, where they breathe impure air. "I often prescribe a pint of hot water in the morning while dressing. This washes out the stomach stimulates the circulation in the lungs and skin and promotes the action of the liver. If a person has a tendency to gout or rheumatism the water drinking habit is especially recommended."

One physician was found who recommended the drinking of a quart of water with each meal, but the majority were opposed to drinking water while eating.

CHICAGO LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

Union Stock Yards, Chicago, May 10.—Oliver J. Green with Walter Bros. reports the estimated receipts for Monday, May 10th:

Cattle—13,000.
Hogs—29,000.
Sheep—11,000.

After the big advance last week the trade generally expected 18,000 to 20,000 cattle today but that supply failed to materialize and the exceptionally short run for a Monday's market, advance prices 10 to 15c over last Wednesday or 15 to 25c over the slow close Friday. Handy weights and fat kinds got the most gain. Prime yearlings averaging 1120 lbs. made $9.25. Choice heavy cattle $8.75 to $8.85, but few of any beef killing quality below 8c. Common and medium little killers, got the short end of the advance. There were places where the market is 15 to 25c higher than last Wednesday. Shippers and local killers were anxious for cattle and did not wait until late in the forenoon before riding the alleys, to make purchases. About 2300 cars of the 625 recovered arrived in the free area. Both shippers and local killers, showed a preference for cattle that weighed from 1250 pounds to 1300 pounds, as against the heavy cattle, but there not enough of the heavier grades today to oversupply the demand. The big end of the medium to good killers sold within a range of $8.00 to $8.35, and only a small proportion of the run, at 8c and below. While many claim that the farmers were to busy planting corn, there are other potent reasons for a short supply. Shippers had been cautioned not to overload the market supply and advised that even a temporary break would soon recover, and prices make further advance. A drove of Kansas steers that sold at $8.70 were a cut off of the drove that only made $7.90 in Kansas City last Thursday. This market was 40 to 50c higher than river points for the same kind of cattle, and the same markets. A long list of handy to heavy weights, $8.65 to $8.75 and as reported above but few of anything in decent killing flesh below 8c.

Butcher, she stock trade was firm and mostly 10 to 15c higher, as compared with last Wednesday. Canners also strong. Bulls 10 to 15c higher. Calves generally 25c lower.

This is the car that 38,000 happy owners have given the "rough and tumble" acid test of real automobile owners' wear

An automobile on the road for 18 months in constant, every-day use by an owner ceases to be a designer's theory.

It becomes—either a great automobile success;
Or it becomes—a great automobile failure.

Multiply one model by 38,000 and give each one of these 38,000 automobiles day in and day out rough and tumble road wear, and if this car stands up and delivers, it has become one of the rare great automobile successes.

And that is the Maxwell success today—that is exactly the "Acid Test" that the Maxwell has passed through, and that is why the Maxwell is the most talked about automobile that is built today.

The Maxwell automobile is today one of the very few great automobile successes the world has ever known.

And this is the car we urge you to see. This is the car that you owe it to yourself to see. We want to tell you about its hill climbing triumphs. We want to tell you about its speed and endurance records. We want to show you and add up for you every one of its new features.

Read This List of Expensive Features. The 1915 Maxwell Has These Features And Many Others.

PURE STREAMLINE BODY

A large, roomy, beautiful body, fitted with deep, comfortable upholstery, ample leg room, adjustable front seat and the best fourteen-coat, hand-painted and striped finish. All Maxwell bodies are constructed of pressed steel, mounted on a steel-channel sectioned frame, offering the greatest possible strength with minimum weight.

SPRING SUSPENSION

Without a doubt you will find the Maxwell the easiest riding, light car made. With its ample sufficient wheel base, and semi-elliptic front springs and three-quarter elliptic rear springs, built of the very best of spring steels, the Maxwell cushions its passengers from all the jars and bumps of rough roads. It is so comfortable and easy riding that you will remark the difference on your first ride.

THE POWERFUL MAXWELL MOTOR

The most powerful, durable motor of its size made. Ample power to negotiate any road, mud, sand or hill—always at your command. Most troubleproof, every part accessible, and what is more, it is a motor of genuine economy. More miles per gallon, day in and day out, than you would believe possible if one were to tell you. The Maxwell motor stands to-day one of the very best in dependable efficiency.

DOUBLE SHELL RADIATOR

A beautiful, troubleproof, highly efficient radiator. Every part but the shell constructed of high-grade copper. It will not corrode and leak. Protected against breakage by a heavy pressed steel shell and special shock-absorbing devices on each side of the frame that protect it against the many strains and twists of the car.

THE STEERING GEAR

Irreversible worm and gear, the only safe steering device. Maxwell uses a gear instead of a sector. This makes adjustment very simple, as you have merely to turn the gear one-quarter way and you have a new surface, just as good as a complete new steering unit.

BRAKES THAT HOLD AND LAST

One square inch of braking surface to every twelve pounds of weight. That's more than most any other car gives to-day. Maxwell brakes are thoroughly dependable, enclosed and protected from dust and dirt, and have special anti-rattling devices. Maxwell brakes are very easy to handle. The slightest pressure of the foot and your car comes to a dead stop.

ELGIN BANK TELLER DISAPPEARS; IS CHARGED WITH $10,000 THEFT

Disappearance is Sequel to Disappearance in 1911 of His Father, Who was the Founder of the Bank

Elgin, Ill., May 11.—The disappearance of Ray L. Seaman, teller of the Elgin National bank today charged with the larceny of $10,000 in gold certificates, was the sequel to the disappearance in 1911, of L. N. Seaman, his father and founder of the bank. The father, who was arrested in Los Angeles, was tried in the federal court in Chicago on a charge of having misappropriated $38,000 and was acquitted. He died May 2nd, in Los Angeles.

The younger Seaman is alleged to have taken $10,000 in gold certificates from the bank vaults on Saturday, when he was last seen there. He paid his personal bills about the city Saturday afternoon and left.

Friends declare continued gossip over his father's dealing with the bank together with poor health drove the teller to leave. He is said to have bought a revolver Friday afternoon and his former intimates declared he would not submit to arrest.

Emmett Story made a trip from Murrayville to the city yesterday.

Planning for the Stork's Arrival

Among those things which all women should know of, and many of them do, is a splendid external application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." It is a penetrating liquid and many a mother tells how it so wonderfully aided them through the period of expectancy. Its chief purpose is to render the tendons, ligaments and muscles so pliant that nature's expansion may be accomplished without the intense strain so often characteristic of the period of expectancy.

"Mother's Friend" may therefore be considered as indirectly having a splendid influence upon the early disposition of the future generation.

Whatever induces to the ease and comfort of the mother should unquestionably leave its impress upon the nervous system of the baby.

At any rate it is reasonable to believe that since "Mother's Friend" has been a companion to motherhood for more than half a century it must be a remedy that women have learned the great value of.

No more timely advice could be given the inexperienced mother than to suggest the early use of "Mother's Friend" during the interval of expectancy.

Ask at any drug store for "Mother's Friend," a penetrating, external liquid of great help and value. And write to Bradford Regulator Co., 502 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book of useful and timely information.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

MAN AND HIS MISSION AS SHOWN BY SCIENCE

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE CLUB
HEARS DR. NORBURY

"Service for Others" is Keynote in Discussion of the Individual and His Place in Nature Before Club Women in Last Meeting of Present Year.

"Our place in life and how it should be filled is the principal problem confronting us as we seek our station in the world's work," said Dr. Frank P. Norbury of Springfield Tuesday afternoon to members of the Household Science club, assembled at the home of Mrs. Henry W. English on West College avenue for the last meeting of the present season. Dr. Norbury's subject was "The Individual" and in an address of especial interest he showed how science has stepped in to aid religion, pointing to the truth that success lies in service and that happiness comes from work for others.

Mrs. English was assisted by Mrs. E. P. Cleary and the entertainment hour after the program was indeed a credit to the hostesses. Miss Carrie Dunlap played Baruch's "Romance" at the program's beginning. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Rose Bellatti. At the conclusion of the afternoon the club united in expressing appreciation to Dr. Norbury for his excellent talk and to the musicians for their willing service. Officers for the year ensuing were selected as follows: President—Mrs. Frank Elliott.

Vice president—Mrs. Henry W. English.
Secretary—Mrs. R. A. Gates.
Treasurer—Mrs. E. S. Greenleaf.
Conditions as we find them in our own lives and problems that confront the mother in the rearing of children, Dr. Norbury described as having direct bearing on the scientific study of the individual.

A wonderful organism. The human body was described by the speaker as a mechanistic or machine-like organism, which under specific stimuli reacts in a definite way. This resultant is known as conduct and though we have no means of measuring the thought unit registered in conduct, we may consider certain primal instincts and their consequent emotions. To compass the problem of the individual, man should be studied from the triple standpoint of biology, sociology and psychology, said Dr. Norbury.

Conduct and the emotions causing human action are directly analysable, said the speaker, illustrating his remarks by modern researches in the primal emotion of fear. The family instinct and the emotion of love affect the individual today as they did the man of old. Irradiations from love emotion extend to all parts of life and give rise to the many works of welfare manifest today. Dr. Norbury continued with discussion of heredity and environment and by way of conclusion said in part:

Truth Will Prevail.
"I, for one, believe the world is getting better; that good is growing in spite of all the setbacks it receives. I believe that purity and temperance are growing; that charitable, educational and religious instruction will offset the plans of the devil as manifested in the saloon and other traps for the many. I believe the highest grade of altruistic devotion must come through education. It is the saving quality of society, the gift of God which promotes His institutions on earth. Our numerous churches represent the unification of individuals for securing the best social advantages and the greatest good for all. In so doing they bring these social atoms (the individuals) into cohesive strength, sufficient at least to hold the balance of power in the warfare against vice, ignorance and superstition. When I say the church, I mean all of the institutions growing out of Christian citizenship and their combined forces. The matter of creeds, of minor differences in belief, are not worthy of consideration in this day and age when science has cleared the atmosphere of superstition and darkness.

"Among those who break the paths for truth, the scientist stands as high as he who expounds the doctrines. Out of the multiplicity of occurrences in human life man selects the truth and enforces it. From these occurrences he has appropriated the truth, which is progressive, a knowledge that gives man his true place in the world and appeals to his reason. The scientist renders a service which is altruistic, teaching man that he is his brother's keeper and that he cannot live entirely 'unto himself alone.' The rest of the story of the individual as an atom in the stream of life is simply that of service—his enlargement into an able defender of faith in life, in work, and in the sciences which give to life its standing in this day of advanced civilization. Man receives clear understanding in the sciences which teach him that life begets life, love begets love, and what is immortal in the stream of life, the germ plasm of which he is a part.

Man Not Here by Chance.
"I contemplate man as an individual; I see him as an integral part of a great whole. He is not a chance being, neither is he a creation by accident. He comes into his world, does his part, and what his part is must be determined by the factors which enter into his being as an individual. It remains for him to say whether he is to be the greatest work of God, man in the image of his Maker, or whether he is to pollute the stream of life and bring forth disease and death to himself and to his kind as well.

"My work for twenty-two years has consisted of dealings with individuals, in studying character, in dealing with human frailty not only in the abstract but in the concrete. I have met the problems of the individual and for many years have dealt with the infirmities of man collectively. I have had to do with problems embraced under what I have termed sociology, the ills and the woes of society. I have worked to mend and ameliorate them, and aid in securing the happiness of all concerned. Happiness is what we are all seeking, but a large part of true happiness lies, I believe, in service for others."

BILL TO ABOLISH CITY SCHOOL CHARTER INTRODUCED

Measure Which Purposes to Place Jacksonville Schools Under General Law Given Second Reading in Senate.

The bill introduced in the Illinois senate Tuesday for the purpose of repealing the Jacksonville special school charter was in language as follows:

"A bill for an act to repeal article eleven of an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the city of Jacksonville in the county of Morgan and state of Illinois,' approved Feb. 15, 1867, as amended by an act approved March 29, 1869."

"Section 1—Be it enacted by the people of the state of Illinois, represented in the general assembly, that article eleven of an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the city of Jacksonville, in the county of Morgan and state of Illinois,' approved Feb. 15, 1867, as amended by an act approved March 29, 1869, be, and the same is hereby repealed."

This bill which was introduced in the senate by Senator Smith, was given first and second reading yesterday and the expectation is that it will be given a third reading Thursday of this week and then transmitted to the house.

A like bill for action with reference to the special charter of Bloomington is understood to have also been prepared for introduction. There are only a few remaining existing charters in the state, as a goodly number of them have been surrendered by vote of the people or by legislative action during recent years in order to take advantage of the provisions of the general law.
